Nick Adams

March 20, 2018

9:30 a.m. - Noon

Trini Mendenhall Center, 14 14 Wirt Rd.

Bestselling author, conservative commentor and founder of the Foundation for Liberty and Greatness (FLAG). The foundation provides a kid-friendly Constitution.

Adams defeated childhood cancer in his native Australia. This feat alone was considered extraordinary. He went on to prove defeating cancer was just the beginning of his extraordinary life.

He attended the University of Sydney, earning both undergraduate and post-graduate degrees. While studying, he was publicly elected the youngest Deputy Mayor in Australian history in Sydney, at the age of 21.

Nick visited America for the first time in the summer of 2009. Since that time, he has spoken in more than 25 states. He has given major addresses in several countries including England, Germany and South Korea. He speaks fluent German and Greek. He now resides in Texas since 2016.

Nick is a bestselling author, columnist and commentator. Donald Trump has recommended his books via Twitter. Nick has appeared on many television and radio programs, including Fox & Friends, Sean Hannity, Laura Ingraham and hundreds more.
