March 2020 Issue

President's message

As we go to publish this month's newsletter, our Republican Primary Election Day is complete and just a few runoffs remain. It is time to unite behind our GOP ticket for November 2020! How will we Keep Texas Red? How will we get out the vote without straight ticket voting? These are issues we need to think about, and work on, now and throughout the summer.

Our Nuts and Bolts seminar was well attended on February 11th, and we honored presidents of 24 Republican Womens Clubs in the GHC counties. Each club president or representative was presented with a set of U.S. and Texas flags for their meetings, a rose, and a GHC President's pin. We had a star line up of speakers for 9 seminar sessions and lunch that day! Thanks to TFRW President, Glynis Chester, Texas' RNC Committeewoman, Toni Anne Dashiell, and our panel of speakers: Cynthia England, Julie Faubel, Janis Holt, Theresa Kosmoski, Emely McHattie, Alice Melancon, and, Francine Pares. Our hospitality team for the day was Spindletop RW, Fort Bend RW, and Bay Area RW, working with our GHC Hospitality Chairs, Edie Holland and Dana Khan. The planning committee worked hard to put the event together: Event planners were Pearl Maggio, Alice Melancon, Judy Parada, Cheryl Dalton, and Barbara Tague. Finally, thanks to Commissioner Jack Cagle for underwriting a portion of the catering cost to help us keep the price down! The remaining lunches that day were donated to be distributed at the Mendenhall Center, as many folks in need find themselves seeking services at the facility. You can see photos from the seminar on our website at www.ghcfrwpac.org, and we will have the speakers' presentations online soon.

If you haven't already done so, please be sure and get your club membership dues and club profile form in to our V-P of Membership, Kittie Rice. Our Corresponding Secretary, Jennifer Knesek, is working hard to have the Presidents Handbook and Directory ready for our March 17th meeting, but we need your help. Please get those dues and forms with completed information sent in!

Our March 17th meeting will focus on the upcoming State and National conventions, featuring Janet Jackson as our speaker. Ms. Jackson will review convention information and give us a primer about participating in them. More information about Ms. Jackson is in this newsletter.

Please remember to continue bringing socks to our events to donate for GHC's "Socks for the Homeless" project. We will be collecting them at all of our meetings and events throughout the year to honor our late President, George H.W. Bush.

Also, please send me information on your upcoming club events so we can list them on the website, and share photos with our Newsletter Chair, Tina Gibson, so she can include them in upcoming issues. Our inaugural issue of the GHC Voters Guide is in the works. Shout out to our GOTV Chair, Rachel Redus, who has already started putting the guide together. We will need all hands on deck to help distribute the Voters Guide this Fall and be sure the word gets out to VOTE for all of our Republican nominees so we can KEEP TEXAS RED!

We know you are all working hard to preserve our conservative values and elect our GOP candidates. Keep up the good work and thank you for all your efforts! Republican women truly are the lifeline of our party!

Warm Regards,

Sophia Mafrige, GHCFRW President

Meet and Greet 9:30am, Meeting 10:00am

Speaker Janet Jackson, TRCCA State Training Director

Janet Jackson from the Texas Republican County Chairmen's Association and Bosque County Chairman, will be our speaker and trainer on participating in the Republican Party State Convention.

If you are planning to attend your precinct and senate district conventions as a delegate or alternate and run as a delegate or alternate to the RPT Convention in Houston, you will want to attend this meeting.

Janet Jackson is the Republican Chairman of Bosque County, the immediate Past President and State Training Director for the Texas Republican County Chairman's Association. From 2010 to 2016, Janet served as the Senate District 22 SREC Committeewoman. Precinct and County Chairman training has been a focus of her efforts since 2004. She has led "Road to Convention" seminars every 2 years since 2008. In the summer of 2017 she teamed with RNC Committeewoman, Toni Anne Dashiell to organize a 17 city Campaign School tour of the state along with an incentive program for the TFRW to increase attendance at the RPT State Convention.

On a fun note, she is the creator of "Victor" the 11ft. RPT mascot elephant painted like the flag of Texas. Victor has been showcased at every state convention since 2010 and was present at the Tampa and Cleveland National conventions. Party branding is always in her programs.

NEW SOCKS FOR THE HOMELESS

The "41" Sock Project

Thanks to participants at Nuts and Bolts, Greater Houston Council has gathered a significant amount of new packaged socks of all kinds and sizes. This is a wonderful way to honor President George H. W. Bush. These socks will be distributed at the November 17, 2020 meeting to club representatives from the fourteen counties. The representatives in turn, will be able to distribute to worthy local charities. This is a great way to gain Caring for America and Club Achievement Award points. Please bring new packaged socks of all kinds and sizes to the March 17, 2020 meeting. We will continue this project at every program meeting.

Start a new sock drive from your club!

Thank You!

We wish to express our special thanks to Spindletop RW, Fort Bend RW, and Bay Area RW for providing the delicious refreshments for the Nuts N' Bolts seminar. And we also thank all those who attended Nuts N' Bolts to make it such a great success.

We are still seeking clubs to volunteer to help with hospitality this year. If your club did not participate last year, perhaps your club might consider helping with hospitality in 2020. Please contact Edie Holland at edie-holland@comcast.net or Dana Khan, at danak007@gmail.com.

Rules Regarding TFRW Clubs and Federal Candidates

Background

1. TFRW and its clubs are Texas state political action committees (PACs), but they are NOT federal PACs.
2. These rules pertain to candidates for Federal Elected Office – President, U.S. Senator and U.S. Congressman - they do not apply to State of Texas candidates.
3. FEC has designated Forums and Speaking time at meetings as “in Kind” Donations, the value of these can be accumulated to trigger moving into a Federal PAC or violating campaign donation limits.

What Clubs Cannot Do

4. TFRW and its clubs should not host forums. To avoid triggering a situation in which we violate federal law or need to become federal PAC TFRW clubs should not host forums for Federal Candidates. Forums can be considered an “In Kind” donation by the FEC. We cannot provide a platform for federal candidates to promote their campaigns.
5. Federal Candidates cannot speak at TFRW meetings about their candidacy. We cannot provide a platform for federal candidates to promote their campaigns either by speaking or distributing materials on tables or posting materials. Speaking time is considered an “in Kind” donation.
6. Your club should NOT make ANY donations to federal candidates or officeholders. This prohibition extends to paying for federal candidates’ and office holders’ meals, parking, etc.
7. In addition, at each club function where a federal candidate appears, the club MUST have a federal disclaimer posted. (below)

What We Can Do as a Club

1. The club president or other member, during the introductions portion of the meeting, can introduce the federal candidate as, “Jane Doe, candidate for Congressional District 1.”
2. We can invite the federal candidates to come and visit and mingle with our guests, and personally, or with volunteers, hand out campaign material and ask for individuals’ support. They should not put their materials on a table or on chairs; that could be considered providing a platform.
3. We can sell advertising in a program, newsletter, yearbook, or other publication to federal candidates.
4. We can invite our elected Federal representatives to speak at our meetings about what they are doing in Washington in their role. They should be reminded not to speak about their campaign or opponents.
5. When federal candidates/elected officeholders are present at any event or meeting, the following disclaimer must be displayed:

Solicitations made by federal candidates and officeholders are limited by federal law. The federal candidates and officeholders are soliciting only donations of up to $2,500.00 from individuals and up to $5,000.00 from multi-candidate political committees. They are not soliciting donations in any amount from corporations, labor organizations, national banks, federal contractors, or foreign nationals.

What Individuals Can Do

1. Make donations up to $2500.00.
2. Post signs, posters, bumper stickers and wear buttons
3. Make calls, write cards, host private meet and greets.
4. Do what you can to get your candidate elected.

POLITICAL AD PAID FOR BY THE TEXAS FEDERATION OF REPUBLICAN WOMEN, PAC - A TAX EXEMPT ORGANIZATION UNDER SECTION 527 OF THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE-CONTRIBUTIONS TO TFRW-PAC ARE NOT TAX DEDUCTIBLE. Legislative Report by SJ Swanson, Legislative Chair

Our Legislatures - A Primer

Representation at the Federal Level

Republicans have enjoyed a majority in the U.S. Senate (53-45, with 2 independents who caucus with the Democrats), and suffer a majority of Democrats in the U.S. House of Representatives (198 R, 235 D, 1 independent, 1 vacant).

While Senators are evenly sent from the states (2 per state), the Representatives are by population, generally (see below). Texas has two representatives in the United State Senate – senior Senator John Cornyn out of San Antonio, and junior Senator Ted Cruz from Houston. Each senator represents the entire state. The senators serve staggered six-year terms. Mitch McConnell (Kentucky) is our Republican leader in the Senate). We are currently in the 116th Congress.

Our U.S. Congress has stayed steady at 435 members for more than 100 years. This is because the Permanent Apportionment Act of 1929 “froze” the number of representatives at that time (actually, as had been in place since 1913). In short, following the U.S. Census in 1920 there was a battle between the rural and urban areas of the United States for the number of reps. The prior formula favored urban areas to the detriment of rural areas, and Congress could not agree on an apportionment plan. So, instead, it passed the Act and fixed the number of Representatives as they were per the 1910 census. The argument still rages about whether to move away (up or down urban vs. rural).

Representation on the State Level

Our State’s legislative branch meets only every two years. The last session was the 86th Texas Legislature which met only in regular session (no special sessions called by the Governor, although legislators continue to work in select and interim committees). All 150 seats in the Texas House are up for election in 2020.

The U.S. Census and the 2021 Redistricting Process in Texas

Speaking of population, the United State Census is upon us this year. It’s very important to get an accurate count for many reasons, but especially for representation and likely redrawing of representative district maps for state, and even some more local representation. The outcomes of the 2020 election cycle in Texas stand to influence the state’s redistricting process following the 2020 Census. In Texas, the state legislature is responsible for drafting both congressional and state legislative district plans. District plans are subject to gubernatorial veto.

Redrawing the district maps is an important and long process. Senator Joan Huffman chairs the 86th Legislature’s Senate Select Committee on Redistricting. The Committee started its work October 29th with an initial three-and-a-half-hour hearing where committee rules were adopted and several witnesses were invited to give testimony. Broad interest in the redistricting process was evidenced by the list of witnesses which included legal counsel from the Office of the Attorney General, individual Texans, Texas Legislative Council, legal counsel from the Brennan Center for Justice at NYU School of Law, the Texas State Demographer, National Conference of State Legislatures, and the Chief of the Census Redistricting & Voting Rights Data Office.

The next meetings of the Senate Select Committee are March 25 and 26 in San Antonio to solicit public input and hear invited testimony on the 2021 legislative redistricting process and provide context to the 2020 Census data the 87th Legislature will receive by April 2021. To learn more and see minutes of the above meetings, go to <https://senate.texas.gov/cmte.php?c=625>.

There is also a House Committee on Redistricting chaired by Representative Phil King. The next meetings of the House Committee are March 24, 2020 in Laredo, and April 7, 2020 in Amarillo for public and invited testimony. To learn more about the house committee and see minutes of their meetings, go to <https://capitol.texas.gov/Committees/MeetingsByCmte.aspx?Leg=86&Chamber=H&CmteCode=C080>.

You can also visit <https://bit.ly/2w4MdSq> to learn more on the Texas redistricting process. The 2020 Republican Primary Election

Where Do I find Election Results?

All election results will be posted on the Texas' Secretary of State's website (unofficial and eventually official). The SOS' website is a great place to look for state-wide or multi-county races such as those in the Supreme Court of Texas, Court of Criminal Appeals, various Court of Appeals, and legislators that span multiple counties. Remember, a state-wide/multi-county candidate's results in your county may not be indicative of their overall results. Also, some counties do not post their election results online "live" or at all and rely on the SOS's official records.

Check SOS Election results here (note: the exact link for election results won't be available until election day – use the search feature for the March 3, 2020 Republican Primary and the specific county you are looking for) <https://www.sos.state.tx.us/elections/index.shtml>

You Can Be a Delegate to the Republican State Convention!

What is the Republican State Convention? It's a place for people who vote in the Republican Primary election to define our shared beliefs and to determine how we will promote them. We do this by creating a platform and by setting rules and electing people to run the party between conventions.

Who can attend the Republican State Convention? Anyone who is a registered voter, who has affiliated with the Republican Party, either by voting in the Party Primary or by taking an oath of affiliation and has been duly elected by the lower level conventions. You can affiliate with the Republican Party by voting in the Republican Primary Election or by taking an oath of affiliation. You can only affiliate with one party during each election year.

What is a Delegate? Delegates are grassroots Republicans who participate in the shaping of the Republican Party, its role, and its direction regarding public policy. They volunteer and are chosen by their districts to attend the party's conventions in each even-numbered year.

Step 1: Precinct Conventions

When and where: Your 2020 Precinct Convention will be held sometime after the polls close on Primary Election Day (March 3, 2020) and before the start of the County/Senate District Conventions (March 21, 2020). Please check with your local Republican County Chair for the most up to date information. (See https://www.texasgop.org/county_chairs/)

What to expect: If you are a registered voter and affiliate with the Republican Party, you can participate in this convention. You can introduce and vote on resolutions. Then elect delegates and alternates to the next convention level.

Step 2: County / Senate District Conventions

When and where: Your County or SD Convention will be held on March 21, 2020. Your county party sets the location and time.

What to expect: In the days or weeks before the convention, you can visit committee meetings and let them know what issues are important to you. At the convention, you'll set the rules by which the convention will operate. You will be able to vote on resolutions the committees have worked on. Then you'll elect delegates and alternates to the state convention level.

Step 3: State Convention

When and where: This convention will be held in Houston from May 11th-16th. Committees will meet May 11th-13th. General Session and Caucuses will meet May 14th-16th. Please check www.texasgop.org for convention details.

What to expect: You will be able to testify before the committees on issues you care about, vote on the platform that will state the beliefs of the Party, vote on the rules that will steer the Party, and elect people to run the Party for the next two years.

Why become a delegate to the Republican State Convention? Because you will have an instrumental role in shaping the beliefs of the Party and determining the methods of implementation in public policy.

Go to www.texasgop.org to register for the state convention as a Delegate, Alternate or guest.
